Nixon Calls Knight's Charge "Libelous"

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Richard M. Nixon denies he sought a secret deal to get former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight out of the 1962 race for California's Republican gubernatorial nomination.

"False and libelous on its face," the former vice president said Friday of Knight's charge: That Nixon sent an emissary to offer Knight any state job he wanted if Knight withdrew.

"No person representing me or authorized by me has made such a promise," said Nixon.

Knight retorted, "I will disclose the name of Nixon's pressure emissary and present my proof and witnesses at a public press conference within a few days."

These were the latest developments in a dispute between California's two top Republicans — a long-simmering feud that has come to a boil since Nixon announced his candidacy for governor Wednesday night.

TO MARK FIRE PREVENTION WEEK HERE

Gettysburg firemen are planning a display of equipment and demonstrations on Lincoln Square Wednesday evening as part of the department's observance of Fire Prevention Week.

Fire Chief Francis I. Linn said it is planned to place approximately $100,000 worth of equipment on the square to familiarize "the general public with the fire protection and emergency equipment bought with their contributions to the fire department."

The display is designed also to "remind everyone that fire prevention begins at home," Chief Linn said.

PLAN DEMONSTRATIONS

Knowledge of fire prevention measures has already cut fire losses locally, the fire chief said, "but there is much yet to be done. Each individual should constitute himself a committee of one to take fire prevention measures in his home or business place."

The display will be located on the square from 6:30 to 9:30 o'clock Wednesday night. During the period, demonstrations of various types will be held and members of the fire department will be on hand at all times to explain uses of various equipment to persons interested in examining the equipment.

Among demonstrations will be use of some of the life-saving equipment of the ambulance and rescue corps as well as use of fire fighting equipment.

Will Appear Here For Peace Corps

Miss Marise Ross, Peace Corps field representative from Washington, will be at Gettysburg College Tuesday to meet with college students, faculty members and anyone else interested in the Peace Corps, either for possible membership or merely for information.

Dr. Bruce Bugbee, associate professor at Gettysburg College who is the local representative of the Peace Corps, said Miss Ross will be in Room 222 in the Student Union building from 2 to 10 p.m. Tuesday to answer questions and if at any time a large crowd arrives the group will move to an auditorium for a formal talk.

Dr. Bugbee said Miss Ross is interested in speaking not only to college students and faculty but to townspeople, farmers, labor union representatives and any others who may either be interested for themselves or be in a position to provide advice to others. He stressed that the peace corps is seeking persons with skills to serve in it and "a college education is not necessary."

OPERA TO BE PRESENTED AT COLLEGE

The Turnau Players of New York City will present Mozart's Così Fan Tutte, a comedy opera sung in English, Wednesday, at 8 p.m. in the Student Union building at Gettysburg College. The opera, first of the season's college concert series, will be open to the public. There is no admission charge.

The cast is composed of professional opera players. It is a story of two sisters, Fiordiligi and Dorabella, and their betrothed Ferrando and Guglielmo. Alfonso, an old philosopher, lays a wager with the young officers that, like all women, their fiancées will prove unfaithful to them if given an opportunity. In an effort to prove Alfonso wrong, the officers pretend that their regiment has been ordered overseas. Ferrando and Guglielmo then return in disguise and lay siege to Fiordiligi and Dorabella to test their faithfulness.

Francis Monachino has the male lead and plays Guglielmo. He is a native of New York City and received his musical education at Brooklyn College, Columbia University and Mannes College of Music. He has appeared in more than 25 of the NBC opera telecasts. He sang in two world premieres of operas by Gian-Carlo Menotti, "The Consul" on Broadway, and "Amahl" on television. He has sung with the Little Orchestra Society, the New England Opera, and the New York Philharmonic.

Barbara Cornett, mezzo-soprano as Dorabella, has the other lead. Some of her first leading operatic roles were sung at Indiana University where she received a Master of Music degree in Voice and Drama. Later she toured with the NBC-TV Opera Co., and most recently she appeared with the New York City Opera Company.

OFFER FILMS, SPEAKERS FOR U. N. PROGRAM

Three films and a number of speakers will be available to organizations throughout the county wishing to mark United Nations week, the county U.N. Day observance committee announced at its meeting Friday evening in the Assistance Board office on Chambersburg St.

Dr. Harold Dunkelberger and Dr. Frederick Shaffer reported that two of the films, one on UNESCO and the other on a tour of the United Nations Building in New York, are each 30 minutes in length. The third film on the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund runs about 20 minutes.

Rev. Charles E. Heid, chairman of the observance committee, said he is sending letters to various organizations of the county announcing the availability of the films and of speakers and asking organizations to let him know by October 10 when they might wish to show one of the films or need a speaker for a U.N. program.

AVAILABLE OCT. 16

The films will be available from about October 16 until after United Nations Day, October 24.

NO DELAYS ON NEW SR. HIGH BUILDING HERE

Apparently unaffected by a state-imposed "freeze" on most proposed new school buildings in the state, plans are moving ahead on the new Gettysburg High School and work is expected to start next month.

Because bids have already been opened and a bond issue to finance the new building has been sold, local school administrators agreed that the state Department of Public Instruction "freeze" will not affect the new senior high building here.

County Superintendent of Schools C. P. Keefe said no written directives on the matter have yet been received from Harrisburg, but he expects that there may be some delay or postponement of state action on proposed building projects in Franklin Twp. and Fairfield, the Gettysburg High School project will go ahead on schedule.

MEETINGS ON OCT. 19

The "freeze" order from Harrisburg is a result of new school district reorganization on legislation passed by the 1961 Legislature. All plans for new schools that are being prepared will have to come up for review at Harrisburg in light of the possible effect of school district reorganization on the need for the new buildings.

A notice went out this week to members of the Gettysburg Joint School Board that Monday, October 16, has been set as the time for the settlement of the bond issue for the new high school.

Before bond settlement is made, it will be necessary for each member board in the jointure to pass a resolution authorizing the lease agreement between the school district and the school authority. Each board also will have to adopt a resolution approving projected estimated budgets for the 1962-1963 and 1963-64 school years.

Meetings of the separate boards have been called for 7:30 o'clock Monday, October 9, to take action on these resolutions. These board meetings will be held before the Joint School Operating Committee meets on the same evening for its monthly session.

orders. In Beirut the newspaper Lisan al Hal reported the new government, which was named only Friday, freed all political prisoners in Damascus. There was no confirmation in Beirut of the report.

GET RECOGNITION

The government waited less than two days after Thursday's virtually bloodless coup to ask foreign diplomats in Damascus to seek recognition by their governments of the new Syrian regime.

Turkey and Jordan already have accorded recognition. Iran was reported considering recognition, and Iraq came to Syria's defense. All four nations have long been wary of Nasser's ambitions for a unified Arab state dominated by Egypt.

Premier Abdel Karim Kassem of Iraq, Nasser's major counterweight in the continuing Middle East struggle for power, said in a speech in Baghdad that the Iraqi army was alerted "to stand ready in the face of any foreigner, if he tried to interfere in our brother country Syria."

ONE SYMPATHETICS

The only Arab leader with a sympathetic word for Nasser as his dream of a single "Arab nation" started crumbling was President Habib Bourguiba of Tunisia. He sent Nasser a friendly telegram expressing regret at the revolution and hope the dispute could be settled peacefully.

Radio stations in Damascus and Aleppo broadcast pleas to Syrians to stop staging demonstrations in support of the revolt. They warned that continued excitement might "allow exploiters to infiltrate their ranks."

The Lebanese-Syrian border was still closed, but life appeared moving back toward normal in the country.

BANKERS FORM NEW CHAPTER

David H. Spangler, trust department employee of the First National Bank of York, was presented with a check for $25 for submitting the name selected for the organization's newspaper at the "kickoff banquet" of the York-Adams Chapter, American Institute of Banking, Thursday night at Hanover.

President Albert Bair, trust officer of the Littlestown National Bank, presided at the meeting at which former Maryland Governor Theodore R. McKeldin was the speaker.

A number of Adams County bankers were present including Vice President Paul B. Fox, Richard Felix, Miss Linda Carbaugh and Mrs. Bernard Murray of the First National Bank here.

Governor McKeldin, speaking on "good personal public relations," said that to "get along with people a person must belong to the five nations: Determination, resignation, combination, coronation and imagination." The latter, he said, was "the most important of the nations."

WILL ATTEND CONFERENCE

Plans to take part in a regional conference at Chambersburg October 13 were outlined Thursday evening at a meeting of the Adams County Senior Extension Club at Bendersville.

President Carl Kessel urged all members who plan to attend the session to notify the Franklin County club by October 4.

Sports manager Frank Coffelt announced plans for a bowling meeting to be held October 14 at the Upper Adams Lanes.

James Behney, barbecue chairman, presented awards to those who sold the most tickets for the event. They were: Janet Bretzman; second, Jean and Jim Behney and third, Shirley and Carl Kessel.

Jean Behney announced plans of the Cannonaders to hold public square dances the last Saturday of each month and urged members of the club to attend.

Plans were made to hold a number of skating parties during the winter.

The club agreed to provide a group for a square dance to be presented for the Farmers Association at the Yorktowne Hotel November 13.

James Behney invited members and guests to a hay ride at his farm near York Springs October 23.

It was announced that the club newspaper, "The Inklings" will be made up and mimeographed Tuesday evening at the extension office in the court house.

Miss Beatriz Negrin, International Farm Youth Exchange delegate from Uruguay, now visiting in the county, showed slides and spoke of her country's history.

The next meeting of the club will be held October 26 at the West Street bank.

STARNER SERVICES HELD

Funeral services for Myles LeRoy Starnier, 61, Biglerville R. 1, fruitgrower and farmer, who died of injuries when a tractor he was operating Tuesday morning upset, were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bender Funeral Home. The Rev. Nevil R. Frantz, Arendtsville, officiated and interment was made in Greenmount Cemetery at Arendtsville.

The pallbearers were Dale Weikert, Carl and George Carey, Raymond Guise, Donald Boyer and John Peters.

PUSHING PLANS ON "CAMPAIGN GETTYSBURG"

Further plans for "Campaign Gettysburg" were outlined Thursday evening by the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce at its meeting in the Western Maryland Railway depot.

President Robert Weiland and others noted at the meeting their pleasure at the "initial response to the dinner session Wednesday evening" at which merchants and property owners in the central part of the town were presented with sketches for proposed change to their properties, and General Eisenhower was the principal speaker. The dinner was held as a "kickoff" for the campaign by which the Jaycees hope the town will by next June present a unique appearance among communities.

Color sketches of the remodeling suggested for the 118 buildings in the central part of the town will be put on public display next week, the Jaycees decided.

25 HAVE SIGNED

Donald Becker, chairman of "Campaign Gettysburg," said that additional copies of the black and white sketches given the merchants and property owners will be available if they wish them early next week. Becker said some of the owners had already asked for additional copies to be turned over the the contractors who will do the work, and as a result it was decided to make additional copies available to all who want them.

Becker said "about 25 merchants" have signed so far indicate they plan to carry out the changes suggested for their stores and a Community Business Contacts committee headed by Harold Ecker will visit the other owners starting next week to seek their support of the campaign.

It was announced that the Work Progress Committee headed by Guile Lefever is ready to give whatever assistance is sought from it by building owners. The committee has lists of names of contractors, suppliers, etc., so that owners may easily find out "who and what" are available.

FILM TO BE SHOWN

Becker will serve as "referral agency" and anyone with questions concerning "Campaign Gettysburg" is asked to call him at ED 4-2017.

The Saturday Evening Post, which showed a presentation on the campaign in "wide screen" has arranged for the slides to be redone for conventional screens in about two weeks and a public showing of the presentation will be held.

Plans for landscaping at the Adams County Public Library are complete, according to reports at Thursday's Jaycee meeting. The Jaycees have graded the area around the library. Since the library is supported partly by tax funds it will be able to secure shubbery raised at state nurseries at Bellefonte. Arrangements have been made for Harry Biesecker to plant the shubbery. The plans for the placing of the shubbery were made by the architectural landscaping specialists at Penn State.

Thirteen members of the New Freedom Junior Chamber of Commerce led by President Dwight Summers met with the Gettysburg Jaycees Thursday night to "roll the barrel" to the local club. Next Thursday the local club will "roll the barrel" to the Red Lion Club.

Robert Coble and Samuel King were introduced as new members of the local club.

Third Biggest Tourist Year Ends Sunday: Tourist visitation to Gettysburg continues to increase with the National Park of office here estimating that 634,050 toured the field during the past travel year.

The figure, 684,050, sent in Sunday evening to the U. S. Department of Interior at the end of the travel season, which extends from October 1 to September 30, showed an increase over the previous year of 24,156. Only two years have exceeded the past 12 months in total tourist visitation. Top year was 1938 when the dedication of the Peace Light Memorial here and the reunion of the Blue and Gray brought 1,534,234 tourists here. The second largest visitation in history occurred in 1929 when 727,395 were here.

Henry T. Bream Is Honored By 500 Friends At College Dinner: Glowing tributes were showered upon Henry Trostle Bream, head football and basketball coach at Gettysburg college since 1927, at a testimonial dinner Saturday evening in Eddie Plank Memorial gymnasium on the campus to climax an observance of "Hen Bream Day."

More than 500 friends, town-folk, college faculty members and former athletes that included most of the "greats" of Gettysburg college gridiron history of the last quarter century gathered to help heap praises upon "the redhead."

8th Army Takes 3 Peaks Near Heartbreak Ridge As Allies Resume Heavy Korea Fighting: Red leaders persisted today in their long silence on an allied proposal to change the Korean truce meeting place from Kaesong to no-man's land. Gen. Omar Bradley said Sunday the future of the armistice negotiations "will depend on the nature" of the Communist reply.

He had told a news conference in Tokyo Sunday, "No one can foresee if they (the truce talks) will be successful or unsuccessful. I don't think anyone expects quick results."

The Eighth Army is "prepared to strike and strike hard" in Korea if the Reds want all-out war instead of truce talks. That warning was issued tonight in Tokyo by Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's public information office.

Spring Avenue Bridge Is Open: Cost Tops $6,332: The new bridge over the Tiber on Springs avenue was completed, and the street re-opened to traffic Monday afternoon, Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner reported to borough council at its October meeting Monday night in the council chambers at the fire engine house.

A total of $6,332.53 has been paid to date on the cost of the new bridge, the engineer said. Remaining to be paid is an engineering fee of $500 to Gannett, Fleming, Corddry and Carpenter, Harrisburg consulting engineers, and a bill for concrete. The work on the bridge has been under way about three months.

18 Workers Injured When Heater Explodes in Plant Of Carroll Shoe Company: Eighteen persons were injured, none seriously, in the explosion of a heater attached to a large vulcanizing machine at the Littlestown plant of the Carroll Shoe company at 4:15 o'clock Monday afternoon, 15 minutes before the regular factory closing hour.

Fourteen were treated at the factory by Drs. Leonard L. Potter and Philip D. Zulick, of Littlestown, and four others were treated at the Warner Hospital here, and discharged. All suffered puncture wounds from flying glass and metal, the physicians said.

LIVE MEN

The worth of the body is in its action. A mere so many pounds of flesh and bones means little. Weigh any human being and you get this.

Each body is like a neat kit of tools. Ready for use. Rightly applied you show to the world the value of each separate item, brain, hands, legs, heart. And the more intelligence you employ in the handling of each tool you possess, the finer does your work loom.

What a simple, trivial thing a mere body is anyway. But let it be a Cromwell body, a Lincoln body, a Churchill, or that of an Edison—and behold the achievements of ordinary possessions made unique, reshaped and given new standing.

Often many of the lights of life have to be snuffed out by the watching God so that folks may awake to the fact that light is a golden gift.

And sometimes He takes a whole life and darkens it in death that it may live!

I recall reading the lives of three men who were so little appreciated while they lived that each often contemplated suicide. They wrung their souls for the precious blood into which they dipped their immortal pens—and then having done a long day's work, closed their eyes for sleep and rest. But they never awoke in the morning to find themselves either famous or appreciated.

How alive they are today, though. How their voices sweeten the very atmosphere of our days and make each new task something to be attempted in better heart and with more courage.

There is nothing so immortal as a great thought—executed. Protected, 1961, by The George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

DEATH, THE COLLECTOR
Death, the collector, came to him and said:

"I want the payment for your drink and bread!
I want the price which tenants all must pay
For having occupied a house of clay.

This is a bill which cannot be denied."

"Please call another time," the man replied.

"I'm sorry, but today I'm not prepared.

I really thought your Master little cared.

How long this lease of mine on earth should run.

I've planned some work which still is far from done.

Come back, collector, at some other time."

"I've heard that story countless times before,"

Said the collector, standing at the door.

"You say you want more time!

Well, Mr. Man,

Give me the date precisely, if you can.

Suppose I grant you five years more, or ten;

Are you quite sure that you'll be ready then?

"When will your work be finished?

Can you say

At fifty with a smile you'll go away?

At sixty shall I call? and will you then

Be glad to quit the fellowship of men?

Ah no, my friend, only the Master knows

The day and hour life's mortgage to foreclose!"

MIAMI UPSETS STATE 25 TO 8 FRIDAY NIGHT

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The college football weekend started with a rousing upset Friday night as unranked, Miami (Fla.) decisively defeated Penn State, No. 8 in the first week of the Associated Press poll, 25-8.

In other top Friday night games Southern California beat Southern Methodist 21-16, Virginia Military nipped Richmond 8-6 and Detroit defeated Xavier (Ohio) 34-8.

A pair of crippled quarterbacks, sophomore George Mira and Bobby Weaver, sparked a surprisingly strong Miami offense as the Hurricane defense stopped the vaunted Penn State attack cold.

Miami moved 79 yards in 12 plays in the second period for its first touchdown, and scored again in the third on a combination running-passing attack. The Hurricane added another touchdown and a field goal by Charley Livinston in the final period.

93-YARD TD
Southern California's Willie Brown, a 170-pound soph half-back, got loose for a 93-yard TD run in the first quarter to put the Trojans ahead. Then, after SMU had tied the score at 7-7, he scampered 18 and 30 yards, respectively, to set up the Trojans' second and third touchdowns.

The big boys — by vote of the experts in the AP's preseason poll — finally flex their muscles today.

Iowa, named No. 1, makes its debut at home against injury-crippled California, and Ohio State, No. 2, will take on possibly sterner opposition in Texas Christian, upset winner over Kansas last week 17-16.

SPARTANS VS. BADGERS
The third member of the preseason top 10 still untested, Michigan State (No. 10), takes on Wisconsin in the Big Ten opener. Wisconsin defeated Utah 7-0 last week.

Second-ranked Mississippi opens defense of its Southeastern Conference title against Kentucky, but the big game down South finds Rice (No. 7) meeting Georgia Tech.

West Virginia, victorious in its last 17 starts, takes on fifth-ranked Syracuse.

The week's nationally televised game (ABC-TV 2:30 p.m. EST) matches Oklahoma and Notre Dame, each making its first start of the year.

Illinois opens its season against Washington, Michigan figures as a slight underdog in its game with UCLA (No. 9) and national champion Minnesota meets a strong Missouri eleven.

Alabama (No. 4) takes on Tulane in an SEC contest and Texas (No. 6) meets Texas Tech in a Southwestern Conference game.

SELECT HORSE OF YEAR TODAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The horse of the year title may be decided today at Belmont Park when Kelso and Carry Back meet in the $100,000-added Woodward Handicap.

The 4-year-old Kelso, owned by Mrs. Richard C. du Pont, was horse of the year in 1960 and went to the post as the 4-5 favorite for the 1 1/4-mile jaunt. He has lost only one race in the past 14 months.

Mrs. Katherine Price's Carry Back, who already has clinched 3-year-old honors on the basis of his victories in the Kentucky Derby, Preakness, Flamingo Stakes and Florida Derby, has been pegged as the 3-1 second choice.

Eddie Arcaro will be on Kelso, who has been assigned 126 pounds, while Johnny Sellers will ride Carry Back, who will carry 120.

Two other among the 10 starters are given a good chance of springing an upset. They are C.V. Whitney's Tompon and Eddie Burke's Whodunit.

The Philippines number more than 7,000.

Undefeated Chambersburg Rolls Over Warriors 41-0 In South Penn Encounter

Next Friday's Game
Gettysburg at Hanover.

Chambersburg High School's mighty gridiron machine scored the three times they held the ball in the first half and went on to wallop Gettysburg 41-0 before more than 3,000 fans Friday evening at Chambersburg.

The Trojans' goal line was threatened only twice throughout the game and, even when it was, they held a three-touchdown or more lead at the time. They had very little trouble in winning their second South Penn League game and their fourth overall this season. Scoring on a 73-yard pass-run play, a 75-yard intercepted pass and a 66-yard punt return, Chambersburg had the game under control at all points and did not punt from scrimmage once during the evening.

The Trojans' first score came with only about four minutes gone in the first quarter after Gettysburg was forced into a poor punt which put the Trojans only 30 yards from pay dirt. Three ground plays got 12 yards and a first down and, on the next play, speedy halfback Dick Nye swept right end for the final 18 yards. He was helped nicely by Pat Ruda, who put a neat block on Warrior end Bob Beeler, and Jim McClellan, who failed to bring Nye down on an open tackle. Jack Hollingshead kicked for the point.

Chambersburg came right back to score again after another Gettysburg punt went out of bounds on the Trojans' 46. Nine running plays ground out 50 yards and three first downs to the Warriors' four and on third and one, Trojan quarterback Carl Watson passed to Bud Evans who was left alone in the right flat for a 130-yard score at the end of the first quarter. Hollingshead's kick again was good.

60-YARD PASS PLAY
Gettysburg initiated a quick kick to start the second period and after two penalties and an incomplete pass, Watson fired to Dick Nye who had gone down and out about 15 yards. Utz dove to intercept the ball, but missed, and Nye scampered the final 60 yards untouched.

The Warriors started their first drive after the ensuing kickoff. Some fine running and a Tom Duane-to-Tom Kuykendall pass netted two first downs. On a fourth and seven Jim Davies, from punt formation, threw a screen pass to Jim McClellan who barely got the first down on the left side.

Two more Duane passes and McClellan's six yarder up the middle gave the Warriors a first down on the 16-yard line. But McClellan lost a yard and a pass from Utz to McClellan gained only two. On third down, Duane threw to Kuykendall in the left side of the end zone. Defensive back Jack Mull battled the ball into the air, and it came down into Kuykendall's fingers, who bubbled it twice, and then lost the elusive pigskin out of bounds. McClellan was stopped on an end run on fourth down.

REDS' CATCHER HURT; SPAHN BEATS GIANTS

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim O'Toole, Cincinnati's young southpaw ace scheduled to face the New York Yankees in the opening game of the World Series Wednesday, is well primed but the Reds' may be hurting if the injury to catcher Darrell Johnson is serious.

Johnson strained a muscle in his left side while taking batting practice before O'Toole pitched five innings of four-hit ball in his final tuneup for the series while the Reds clobbered the Pittsburgh Pirates 8-1.

It was the eighth straight victory and the 19th in 28 decisions for O'Toole, who hasn't lost since Aug. 11.

STRAINED MUSCLE

According to Dr. Richard Rohde, Johnson strained a muscle in the vicinity of his floating ribs during batting practice and aggravated it when he batted in the second inning. Johnson is the Reds' only experienced receiver and was hitting .270. Rookies Jerry Edwards, hitting .186, and Jerry Zimmerman, batting .202, are the other catchers.

The Milwaukee Braves retained a chance to tie the San Francisco third place in the National League by whipping the Giants 4-1 behind Warren Spahn in a five-inning game halted by rain. The other NL clubs were idle.

MATTHEWS' HR

The Pirates reached O'Toole for their only run in the fifth inning on a two-out triple by Don Clemon and Dick Stuart's single. The Reds scored all they needed off Larry Foss (1-1) in the first inning, tagging him for three runs, two on Gordon Coleman's 26th homer.

Spahn (21-13) stopped the Giants on four hits, winning 21 games for the 11th time in his career. Eddie Mathews provided the necessary runs with his 32nd homer.

STENGEL TO MANAGE METS FOR ONE YEAR

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Casey Stengel was back in baseball today, a year after the New York Yankees fired him because he was too old. At the age of 71 the grizzled oldtimer has agreed to a one-year contract with the New York Mets.

Thus George Weiss and Stengel are re-united with the new National League team that will compete with the Yankees for the fans' favor in 1962. Weiss also was out to pasture by the Yanks last fall, at the age of 65, but later accepted a job as president of the Mets.

The first item on the program of the Weiss-Stengel team will be to select the players made available by the other National League teams. This selection will be made by New York and Houston on alternate picks the day after the World Series ends.

MEETS WITH STAFF
Lists of the players will be made available to the Mets on Monday when Weiss expects Stengel to come to town from his Glendale, Calif., home for a meeting with the scouting staff.

Weiss said Stengel didn't agree to come back until about 6 a.m. Friday when he called Weiss on the phone. An earlier conversation in which Mrs. Charles Shipman Payson and Donald Grant, financial backers of the club, urged Casey to come out of retirement was an important factor.

When reporters reached Stengel at the North Hollywood, Calif., bank of which he is a vice president, he was asked why he was coming back.

SALARY NOT MENTIONED
The answer was undistilled Stengalese: "Why did I decide to go back into baseball? I'd say the enthusiasm of Mr. Weiss and the owners and they are really interested in baseball was also the fact with Gene Autry and Bob Reynolds who are a real inspiration to baseball." Autry and Reynolds own the Los Angeles Angels of the American League.

As for the National League, Stengel said he thought he knew enough about them to protect himself.

"We played them 10 times (in the World Series)," he said, "and in the All-Star games so I think I know them pretty well myself. Everybody thinks this may be a losing ball club. But I always try to tell myself after we lose a game that, well, like a swami, we'll win the next one."

Weiss in character, wouldn't even hint at Stengel's salary.

Eddie Kooztz, Littlestown halfback, is shown picking up yardage in the second quarter of Friday's game as the Thunderbolts and West York battled to a 6-6 tie in a Laurel Conference game at Littlestown. John Waltersdorff, West York end, appears to be attempting to take the ball from Kooztz. Immediately back of Waltersdorff is Bob Harner, Bolt tackle. (Times photo)

Time ran out on the Littlestown High School football squad Friday evening at Littlestown and the Thunderbolts were forced to accept a 6-6 tie with West York in their Laurel Conference game. It was the fourth tie between the teams in the last eight years. In 1960 the score was 14-14.

Ron Lawhead's Bolts were on the Bulldogs' one-yard line when the game ended.

The first period was scoreless but West York mounted a threat that drove 40 yards to the Littlestown 13 late in the late minutes where they were stopped by the determined Bolt defense as the second period got underway.

KOONTZ RECOVERS

Just four plays later Littlestown was forced to punt and Eddie Kooztz pounced on a Bulldog fumble on the Littlestown 41 from where the Bolts launched their touchdown drive.

Dick Motter sparked the drive, circling left end for 18 yards and then going to the right for 20 more to reach the West York 18. A 15-yard penalty against West York, after Kooztz had been dropped on the 30 on a pass attempt, put the ball on the invaders' 15. After Motter lost a yard, Kopitz fired a pass to John Strevig for a first down on the seven. On his third try from that point Kooztz bolted over for the score. Strevig's pass for the point was grounded.

West York came back for the tying kickoff. Lou Hoffman returned the kickoff 47 yards to the Littlestown 40. Gerald Godfrey teared up 21 yards on four tries with 43 and the threat expired.

Hanover surged back by piling up three straight first downs to the Biglerville 34. The attack broke down on the 25 when a Shaffer-to-Spahr aerial missed by inches for a first down.

Late in the period Shue broke away on his long TD run.

PENALTY HURTS
Shortly after the start of the final quarter Slaybaugh pounced on a Hawk fumble on the Biglerville 48. Three running plays produced a first down on the Hawk 39. An off-side penalty stymied the Canner drive with Hanover holding and taking over on its 31 with about five minutes of play remaining.

Biglerville got its hands on the ball one more time when Larry Geter booted to the Biglerville 44. After four plays apparently picked up a first down, the Canners again were victims of an off-side infraction to nullify the down and a pair of passes fell incomplete as the invaders took possession at midfield. The Hawks simply ran out the clock on the remaining two plays.

The Canners, now 2-2, meet Juniata Joint at Biglerville next Saturday evening. Hanover, 2-2, entertains Gettysburg next Friday evening on the Hawks' gridiron.

Lee Munson, Hoffman and Jim Young aiding in moving the ball to the Bolt 5. Gary Jones then tossed a pass to Fred Gross for the score. Jones' pass for the point missed the mark and the score stood 6-6.

The third period was comparatively slow-moving with West York in possession most of the time.

Early in the fourth quarter Ken Becker recovered a fumble for the Bulldogs on the Bolts' 27. West York advanced to the 20 but Dwight Strevig snared a Bulldog aerial on the 20 to smother the treat.

PUNT HITS BLOCKER

Littlestown manufactured its late threat when a Bulldog punt struck a West York blocker as the Bolts took over on the visitors' 26. Kooztz uncorked a pass to John Strevig for a first down at the 10 with a minute of play remaining.

After a fumble halted one play, Kooztz connected with Bill Woodward on the two. Ted Bortner moved the ball to the one on a quick play but time expired on the play.

Littlestown (1-2-1) plays at York Central next Saturday at 2 p.m.

Says Sorensen's Status Regular

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Nebraska's Selective Service director says he's reviewed the draft record of presidential aide Theodore C. Sorensen and found it "very regular."

"I noticed where some member of Congress said he (Sorensen) avoided military service by claim to be a conscientious objector," said Guy N. Heininger Thursday.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., recently read to the Senate a newspaper story which said Sorensen, 33, had escaped military service as a conscientious objector and Korean War service as a father. The story said Sorensen was classified as "I-AO" between 1948 and 1954.

"This I-AO classification does not avoid military service," said Henninger, a retired Army major general. "A person with that qualification goes into uniform the same as any one else and serves in a branch such as the Medical Corps."

There is another classification, "I-O," for men who refuse to work in uniform and are sent to work camps, Henninger added.

GRID VICTIM PLAYED HERE

Donald G. Foley, 19, sophomore fullback on the Navy squad who died Thursday from an injury received during practice, was a star for the Bullis Prep team which whipped the Gettysburg College freshmen 36-14 here on November 7, 1959. In that game Foley, a halfback, scored a pair of touchdowns and two extra points.

4 TOP TEAMS CONTINUE ON WIN STREAK

HARRISBURG (AP)—Norristown's Bishop Kenrick, Chief Logan, Beaver Falls and Lock Haven romped to easy victories Friday night to remain among the ranks of Pennsylvania's winningest high school football teams.

Bishop Kenrick won its 18th straight and third of the season, knocking off Conshohocken St. Matthews 18-7.

The triumph gave Bishop Kenrick the distinction of having the longest streak of any major high school eleven in the state. Clifton Heights, with 17 straight victories, plays tonight.

Chief Logan made it 17 in a row by trouncing Milton 32-6. Defending WPIAL Class AA champion Beaver Falls, seemingly headed for another undefeated season, chalked up its 15th straight by upending Ambridge 34-12.

SUNBURY LOSES

And Lock Haven nailed down its 14th consecutive win with a stunning 32-14 victory over Bellefonte. Shifting to the sprawling East Penn Conference, Pottsville edged Sunbury 14-7 in a battle of two potential Southern Division titleholders. Another Southern Division hopeful, Hazleton, came up on the winning end of a 40-14 score against Tamaqua.

Neshaminy bounced back from a defeat at the hands of Easton last week to whip Allentown Allen 28-14.

Meanwhile, Uniontown served notice that it must be reckoned with in the WPIAL-AA race this year, squeezing by Washington 14-12, while another WPIAL CON tender, McKeesport, dropped a 14-7 decision to Altoona.

OTHER TOP GAMES

In the top games in the mid-state area, State College nipped Clearfield 20-19. Central Dauphin upended Bishop McDevitt 20-13. Hanover edged Biglerville 7-0 and Chambersburg walloped Gettysburg 41-0.

Central Dauphin marched to its fourth straight season victory without a defeat and once again is proving to be a south-central power.

Major contests in the eastern half of the state found Coatesville downing West Chester 20-0, Lancaster beating Lebanon 27-20, Bethlehem edging Atlantic City 13-7 and Pennsbury shutting out Council Rock 13-0.

In the west, Aliquippa whipped Ellwood City 20-7. Sharon beat New castle 21-19. Farrell lost to Salem, Ohio, 6-0. Albert Gallatin pounded California 32-14. Mount Lebanon shellacked Canon-McMillan 35-7. Richland overpowered Blairsville 26-7. McDowell outlasted Meadville 27-13 and Charleroi struck by Brownsville 10-7.

MARIS ZEROED AS FORD WINS 25TH OVER SOX

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Roger Maris, returning to the lineup after a two-day rest, failed to hit a ball out of the infield as he walked twice and popped out twice Friday night while the New York Yankees were beating the Boston Red Sox 2-1.

Maris, playing for the first time since he hit his 60th homer Tuesday night and matched Babe Ruth's total of 1027, was blanked by Red Sox right-hander Bill Monbouquette in his pursuit of homer run No. 61.

Maris now has the final two games on the regular season program, against Boston today and Sunday, in which to hit his 61st homer and become the most productive one-season homer hitter in major league history.

FORD WINS 25TH

Ruth's record, of course, is safe under the 154-decision ruling of Commissioner Ford Frick.

John Blanchard's 21st homer in the fourth gave the Yanks a 1-0 lead that Whitey Ford protected until he finished his six-inning stint in a final tuneup for the World Series starting Wednesday against the Cincinnati Reds. Blanchard singled Maris, who had walked, home in the ninth to score the other Yankee run.

Ford, who gave up only four hits, finished the season with a 25-4 record. His .862 won-lost percentage is the best in the American League since Cleveland's John Allen compiled a 15-1 record and .938 mark in 1957. Ford's 25 wins are the most in the league since Dave Ferriss of the Red Sox won the same number in 1946.

In the AL, Detroit edged Minnesota 6-4 in 10 innings, Baltimore nipped Chicago 3-2 in 10 innings, Washington blanked Kansas City 2-0 on Pete Burnside's two-hitter and Los Angeles came from behind to beat Cleveland 6-4.

A grand slam homer by rookie

An inspired and determined Lancaster Catholic High School football team drove into McSherrystown Friday night and took care of a job that, in their minds, had to be done. The Crusaders upended Buckley Kempton's Delone Squires 13-0 in a Central Penn Catholic League contest before 3,000 fans.

As Lancaster came out on the field, it was obvious that this was the game they were pointing to all year, despite the fact the season just started a few short weeks ago. The Crusaders struck hard and early. Delone was not ready. The Lancaster offense moved like a machine grinding out yards as if it were cutting up paper. The tight 4-4-3 defense incorporated throughout most of the contest held Delone to 104 yards gained and dropped them for 51 yards for a net gain of 53 yards.

PROFIT ON FUMBLE

Lancaster scored 5:20 minutes after the opening kickoff. John Deller recovered one of nine Squire fumbles on the Delone 23 to set the stage for the score. John Spadea scampered for nine yards and Bob Swift added seven more to the home's seven. On two plays Swift bolted off left guard and into the end zone for the score. Quarterback John Kubala kicked a perfect placement to push the Crusaders in front 7-0.

The second Lancaster score followed in the second period 4:30 gone by. As the first period came to a close Delone was forced to punt on fourth down and Lancaster took over on its own 37. Kubala passed 24 yards to Spadea. Swift went up to the center on a draw play for 10. Swift and Kubala combined 13 yards on three plays to place the ball on the Delone 16. Swift picked up seven more yards and Spadea added four. With the pigskin resting on the Delone five, Spadea bolted to the two and Swift climaxed the 63-yard, 10-play drive with a crash off right guard for the score. This time Kubala's placement hit the cross bar.

HALTED FOUR TIMES

Four times throughout the game Delone moved into scoring position and four times the Crusader defense never weakened. The Squires' drives ended on the 27, 4, 17 and 16-yard lines, respectively, of the visitors. Delone attempted to run up the middle and on each occasion it was repelled. The Squires managed to pick up yardage around the ends and through the air, but most of the plays went into the line.

Delone, after going winless in its first four outings, will try to end the first half of the season on a happy note when it entertains York Catholic next Friday evening in another league encounter.

Agent Advises On Fall Brooding, Solution To Mastitis, Hybrid Corn

FRANK ZETTLE

Adams County Farm Agent

Fall broods of replacement pullets are becoming more popular with poultrymen. These broods, he explains, help to make better utilization of equipment and buildings, spread out the work load, help to keep laying houses at full capacity, and even out the supply of the various egg sizes.

FRANK S. ZETTLE

Rearing chicks in the fall and winter is different from spring brooding. Chicks are raised to maturity in complete confinement, so more building space and more fuel in cold weather are needed. Chicks are started when the days get shorter, so for this reason most poultrymen use some artificial lights during the growing period. Contrary to apt ideas, using a 14-hour day does NOT hasten the maturity of the pullets. In fact the use of lights on fall broods may delay maturity as much as two weeks.

If you start some pullets in the fall and raise them in confinement, it's important to give them plenty of room, increasing it as they get older. Use at least one square foot of floor per bird up to 10 weeks of age, two square feet of floor from 10 to 14 weeks, and three full square feet from 14 weeks to maturity. If chicks are crowded, cannibalism may be a problem, and there'll be more stunted pullets.

SOLUTION TO MASTITIS

Many farmers turn to antibiotics when mastitis hits. Some advertising leads farmers to think this is the easier way out. It's not. However, antibiotics are useful in mastitis treatment and should be kept available for emergency use, but they are not the full answer to the mastitis problem.

Some farmers have been found to buy udder infusion tubes by the dozens. These people are treating their cows right out of the dairy business.

We never will have a miracle drug or injection which will prevent mastitis where management and environment are poor. Too many well bred cows are sent to the butcher each year because the dairyman didn't know how to handle mastitis. The only real weapon against mastitis is the cow's own resistance. To prevent this disease demands the recognition and elimination sources of stress and injury.

In the colder regions, perhaps the most important source of stress is poor housing. The cow's comfort is all-important. Overcrowded barns, poor ventilation, exposure to drafts, cold and wet floors and walls, parasites, and rough handling are all causes of mastitis. Rough and irregular feeding and milking practices have their ill effects also.

SHORT, TALL HYBRID CORN

Tall hybrid corn has outyielded its dwarf counterpart by nine per cent in three years tests at the Pennsylvania State University. This year's crop has not been harvested yet, but the tall hybrid is still expected to retain the lead.

Tests were made of Pennsylvania 602 hybrid, compared with its dwarf counterpart. Nutritional components, as determined by chemical analysis, were similar. Genetically, the two varieties differed only in dwarfing characteristics. The big and important difference was in yield.

The tall hybrid outyielded the dwarf by 560 pounds of dry matter per acre at the milk stage, 360 pounds at the soft dough stage, and 380 at the glazed stage. And the tall variety was four to five days earlier in maturity than the dwarf hybrid.

BELOW EAR LEVEL

Stalks of dwarf corn are much thicker and about two feet shorter than stalks of tall corn. Most of the shortening occurs below the ear level. The dwarf corn shows less damage from wind breakage and borers than the tall variety.

Dwarf plants of Pa. 602 have as many leaves as the tall hybrid. And the leaves are somewhat larger and are set much closer together on the plant. The percentage of leaf to stalk is higher in the dwarf than in the tall corn.

Which hybrid is better? Well, the researchers won't say yet. They have more tests to make... but, at present, the tall hybrid has the yield and early maturing advantage while the dwarf holds the edge in leaf-to-stalk ratio, stalk strength, and resistance to corn borers.

FRANK HEAN DIES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Frank R. Hean, 70, secretary of the State Pardons Board since 1955, died at Harrisburg Hospital Thursday following a two-year illness.

Hean, a resident of Harrisburg, was a Democrat. Funeral services will be held Monday in Harrisburg.

LITTLE GIRL IS GOING HOME TO PASS AWAY

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—A Japanese-American girl, unconscious for more than a year, is flying home to Tokyo where doctors say she will soon die.

Mira Oensel, 10, once a pert, peppy 68-pounder, has wasted away to 30 pounds since she was stricken with a brain tumor last year.

Doctors say she may not be strong enough to make the trip but her American father and Japanese mother want to reunite the family, if possible, while there still is time.

Flying with Mira is her mother, Takako Oensel, who has been at her bedside since last winter, praying and singing to the sleeping child. Mira's father, Frank Oensel, is a consulting engineer with an American firm in Tokyo. Born in Japan, Mira is an only child.

DISCOVER TUMOR

The tumor was discovered after Mira fainted while she and her father were visiting Georgia friends Sept. 7, 1960. Despite an operation, she never regained consciousness. Oensel kept a bedside vigil until April, then he returned to his job and the mother flew here to be with the child.

EMPLOYMENT IS PERKING UP

HARRISBURG (AP) — Although still lagging behind last year's levels, employment seems to be perking up in Pennsylvania, reports the State Labor and Industry Department.

Department secretary A. Allen Sulcove said Thursday that employment figures in the state jumped from 4,288,000, to 4,310,200 between mid-July and mid-

August. At the same time, he added, unemployment dropped an estimated 33,000.

Sulcove noted, however, that the total employment figure for mid-August was some 34,000 below that of last year, while unemployment this year was 28,000 higher.

Average weekly earnings of $92.43 were some $3.12 higher this year than they were in 1960.

Ask Congressmen For Xmas Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — It may seem a little early, but they're starting plans for Christmas observance at the Capitol now.

Notes sent to all Congress members and Capitol employees urge them to contribute generously to a fund to finance a big Christmas tree and daily singing of Christmas carols by choirs.

The Christmas fund memo was signed by J. Lewey Caraway, August.

At the same time, he added, unemployment dropped an estimated 33,000.

Sulcove noted, however, that the total employment figure for mid-August was some 34,000 below that of last year, while unemployment this year was 28,000 higher.

Average weekly earnings of $92.43 were some $3.12 higher this year than they were in 1960.

CONTROL ALFALFA WEEVILS WITH HEPTACHLOR

NEW 1961 FALL RECOMMENDATION!

UNTREATED

HEPTACHLOR TREATED

Alfalfa weevil larvae eat the leafy parts of alfalfa that account for 75% of the high protein feed value and 50% of the weight. Stop them dead with Heptachlor, and get higher yields of good quality hay. Fall application kills adult weevils. Larvae never get a chance to develop. It's fully approved, and proven in widespread use. Saves work in the spring. Heptachlor costs less to use than any other recommended insecticide. Compare the cost per acre before you buy. Whether you use a spray, granules or fertilizer mixture, you'll save about $1.00 per acre by using Heptachlor. Heptachlor must be applied at the right time, in the fall, for maximum effectiveness. Consult your local state recommendations now for dosage and timing recommendations.

WHY YOU SHOULD FEED GRASS IN THE FALL

1. Some of the nutrients in Gro-All Green will be used this fall to strengthen the root system. Your grass will go into winter stronger and healthier.
2. The unused nutrients will be carried deep into the soil and lie dormant as frost action during the winter breaks up your turf.
3. In the spring, the nutrients which have lain dormant will be released slowly and steadily to give your grass an early start. You'll have deeper-rooted, green, springier, thicker grass. And the thicker the turf, the fewer the weeds!

FROM WEEKLY TELEVISION

DIGEST: 20th Century-Fox has three segments of "Follow The Sun" before the cameras simultaneously . . . Revue Studio's "The Investigators" will make its debut on CBS-TV October 5 . . . Mark VII Ltd. will produce a 60-minute anthology pilot for CBS-TV using material from True magazine as its source . . . Jack Webb will star and direct some of the segments . . . Revue Studios signed Mary Jayne Saunders to a five-year contract. She's a regular in its "Tales of Wells Fargo" series . . . The sale of the TV rights of "Mr. Moto," the famous character created by John P. Marquand, is now in negotiation.

FROM RADIO TV DAILY:

MGM-TV is planning a series based on the experiences of West Coast Defense Attorney Jake Ehrlich. It's to be called "333 Montgomery," Ehrlich's San Francisco address . . . Four Star Television is extending its scope to include production of educational films, it was revealed by President Dick Powell . . . Aerry Lewis spec will kick off the March for Muscular Dystrophy this fall. It will be taped either in Hollywood or Las Vegas . . . Gene Kelly, who's directing the Jackie Gleason picture "Gigot" in Paris, is negotiating with NBC and CBS for Gleason to host and star in a musical spec direct from that city, to be called "An American in Paris." Kelly would direct.

FROM THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER:

Michael Rennie, who stars in "The Third Man" TV series, has just been made associate producer of it as well . . . Earl Holliman will star in the first of the Westinghouse TV specials this season. The show will be called "Dispossessed" . . . Keenan Wynn has been signed to guest star in "Pursuit of Evil" segment of "Bus Stop" at 20th Century-Fox TV . . . Bob Hope will appear on Jo Stafford's TV spec from London over NBC, although he is under contract to CBS.

JOHNNY MATHIS:

Johnny Mathis, who has not appeared on TV in this country since September, 1960, has signed for an Ed Sullivan Show appearance on Sunday, November 26. Mathis is among those performers who believes in rarely appearing on TV, because he believes that frequent exposure in that medium would adversely affect the box office for his "live" appearances. Although there are "pros" and "cons" on this subject, the fact remains that Mathis, who stayed off TV for more than a year, has drawn bigger crowds and bigger gate receipts this past year than ever before in his career.

RADIO MIRROR Magazine, in its current issue, reveals its selections of the "Ten Lovelies on TV," based on a survey of noted beauty experts. They are Polly Bergen ("effervescent, fresh, sparkling"), Julia Meade ("sells herself long before she says a word"), Faye Emerson ("gracious warmth"), Bess Myerson ("a thing of beauty"), Loretta Young ("the complete woman"), Amanda Blake ("the look of a great outdoors woman"), Betsy Palmer ("a face that would not tell a lie"), Connie Stevens ("the most consistent beauty of the younger TV girls"), and France Nuyen ("exquisite features").

MITCH MILLER of "Sing Along" explains the hammer and sickle on the Russian flag . . . the sickle is to mow the people down, the hammer is to keep them down!

THE OUTLOOK for drivers fighting their way along the Santa Ana Freeway is a melodic one these days.

Champagne Lady Norma Zimmer, who commutes to Hollywood from her La Habra home on the heavily traveled road, uses the 45 to 60 minutes spent on the trip to rehearse the numbers she'll be singing on the upcoming "Lawrence Welk Show."

EDDIE BRACKEN, who guests in "Another Time, Another War," scheduled for "The Roaring 20's" series this fall, flew to Hollywood from Rome to do the part.

Eddie interrupted his stay in Europe to take the guest spot in the episode after receiving a trans-Atlantic telephone call from Warner Bros. "I agreed to fly to Hollywood without even seeing the script," Eddie said, explaining, "the part sounded so good."

MID-DAY

"ABC Mid-Day Report with Alex Drier," originating from Chicago, will premiere on ABC-TV Monday, (1:25-1:30 p.m. EDT), it was announced by James C. Hagerty, ABC vice president in charge of news, special events and public affairs.

"Originating this Monday-through-Friday report from Chicago is in line with the policy of ABC News to report from all sections of the country," Mr. Hagerty said.

This will be the first of four daily news reports on the network. It will be followed by "American Newsstand" (4:50-5:00 p.m.), specifically directed at young people, "ABC Evening Report" (6-6:15 p.m.) and "ABC Final Report" (11-11:12 p.m.).

Tom Poston of "To Tell the Truth" says some stocks are so low that investors have to clip their coupons in decompression chambers.

BULLWINKLE SHOW: New Animated Cartoon Series

OFF HAND, talking dogs and animated cartoons would seem to have little in common.

"The idea of a talking dog is intriguing," says Jay Ward of Hollywood, "not so much for what the dog says, but the very fact that he says anything."

Ward and partner Bill Scott produce the animated color cartoon, "The Bullwinkle Show," which can be seen every Sunday evening over NBC-TV, 7-7:30 p.m.

"Far too often the 'mechanics' are confused with the 'results.' Many cartoon producers become so intrigued with the novelty of a moving drawing that they forget the prime factor, story," adds Ward. "They open and close their show with a gag. In be-any cartoon is the writer," asides Ward, "not the animator. We prefer 'limited' motion, in contrast to a bewildering conglomeration of action."

HAS TWO DEGREES

By background, neither Ward nor Scott would seem fitted for the cartoon field. Ward, with degrees from the University of California and the Harvard Business School, at one time operated a successful real estate business in Oakland. Scott, graduate of the University of Denver, taught high school before the lure of comedy writing took him from the classroom. He subsequently worked on "Mr. Magoo," "Gerald McBoing-Boing," "Bugs Bunny" and others.

Though prominent only in the while children watch cartoons, these are the same children who watch "The Untouchables," "Twilight Zone" and Bob Hope. Kids are much smarter than we give them credit."

"The Bullwinkle Show" is a "variety" program, made up of different "acts," each show including Bullwinkle episodes.

A regular weekly episode will be "Fractured Fairy Tales," in which old favorites are re-told, Edward Everett Horton narrating. Similarly "Aesop and Son" spoofs the fables, and "Peabody's Improbable History" treats historic events with an eye to comedy, not accuracy.

OTHER VOICES

Along with Edward Everett Horton, the Bullwinkle Show

Bullwinkle and Rocky in a little golfing comedy.

tween they string a series of unrelated gags, like conflicting socks, sheets and dish towels on a clothesline."

STORY IS STRESSED

Rather than dwell on this "gag" technique, Scott and Ward stress story.

"Cartoons have a basic appeal," states Ward, "but an audience will tire if presented only action without thought. Some cartoon makers go as far as to perfect animation to a life-like reality. Fine. But the story suffers in consequence. We try to use animation to tell the story, not story to sell animation."

In "The Bullwinkle Show," Jay Ward Productions have a continuing theme, each episode a logical entity.

"The most important factor in past two years with their "Rocky and His Friends," Ward was actually one of the pioneers in animated cartoons made specifically for television. Back in 1947, when viewers were watching tired vaudeville acts on their seven-inch screens, Ward was a pioneer, producing "Crusader Rabbit," which ran two years, and is now in syndication.

TV editors around the country have dubbed the partners' approach as "adult-minded." The partners disagree.

"ULTIMATE IN COMEDY"

Says Ward, "We aim at neither adults or children. Our goal is to achieve (we hope) the ultimate in comedy, including subtleties which escape the youngsters but which evoke response from the adults. And don't forget, that includes the voices of Bill Conrad (radio's original Matt Dillon), and June Foray. Scott speaks for Bullwinkle.

Ward and Scott, who have the unique distinction of being the only cartoon producers who never worked for Walt Disney, operate their 150-man company from their second-story office in an early California type Spanish bungalow count. Nearby are air-conditioned offices for writers, artists and editors, while around the corner on Sunset Strip (No. junior, not 77) is the head office with the main staff.

Ward personally works standing up, not at some elbow-high writing desk like a Dickensian lawyer, but using the top of a television console as his desk.

Any Questions?

Q: Is there any truth to the rumor that "Hong Kong" will not return in the fall? Toby H.

A: Yes, there is truth to it.

Q: When will the Mitch Miller Show go back on TV? Ella J.

A: The Mitch Miller Show returned to NBC-TV on Sept. 28, 10-11 p.m.

Q: Whatever happened to the two men who played Amos and Andy on radio for so many years? Herb M.

A: Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll will make their entry into TV this fall in an animated cartoon series titled "Calvin and the Colonel."

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

By MARSHALL TUCKEY

Ice cream is probably the most popular food of all. All ages and each generation rates it high on the list of preferred foods.

Ice cream was at one time reserved for royalty and nobility. The story of its discovery is lost, but it is believed that Nero served it at his banquets. His slaves ran down from the mountains, with snow, which the Emperor's kitchen staff sweetened with fruits and juices. Ice cream in the early days was reserved for the "upper class." Now it is available to all. Plan to have dinner with us this Sunday.

"SECRET" PANEL IN MONDAY SPOT

"I've Got A Secret," one of the most popular panel programs presented on television, moved to a new time and day as of last week. Now it can be seen over CBS-TV on Mondays in the 10:30 p.m. time spot.

The same panel, Betsy Palmer, Bess Myerson, Bill Cullen and Henry Morgan, will be on "Secret" and, of course, Garry Moore will occupy the spotlight as moderator. "I've Got A Secret" has been in the 9:30 Wednesday niche on the network for a run of exactly 451 programs. In that time, more than a thousand contestants have tried to confound the panel. Many expensive props have been used on the series. Among the most valuable were a collection of diamonds worth one million dollars, the famed Hope Diamond which was worn by Zsa Zsa Gabor and a rare Gutenberg Bible, valued at $183,000.

In the new 10:30 time on Mondays the "I've Got A Secret" producers expect to attract more millions of regular fans. To this end, they are busy concocting all sorts of off-beat stunts to catch the watching armchair brigade with elements of suspense, humor and human interest.

NOW LOOK AT 'EM

Donna Reed won her first movie contract as a result of a film test she made with Van Heflin. At the time, both stars were unknown.

The show must go on is a performer's maxim which is taken to heart by Mel Blanc, comedian and voice for many cartoon characters. Mel, who started last season as the voice of Barney Rubble on "The Flintstones," has yet to miss a recording session despite the fact that he almost lost his life in an auto accident back in January.

Blanc's injuries included 22 breaks in one leg and for awhile doctors gave him a fifty-fifty chance to survive. Fortunately, the accident happened near the UCLA medical center and the immediate medical attention was a big factor in saving him.

The actor's speech was not impaired and he advised Hanna-Barbera, producers of "The Flintstones," that he felt he could still do justice to Barney Rubble. His will to carry on appealed to the producers and they installed recording equipment in his bedroom and also soundproofed the room to get the right results. And that's where Barney Rubble is getting his voice from these days.

Game Of The Week

Coast To Coast On Television

Five Westinghouse specials will be presented on ABC-TV during the 1961-1962 season. The Westinghouse quintet of programs will lead off November 21 (10-11 p.m. EST) with "An Old-fashioned Thanksgiving," starring Charlton Heston and featuring Dick Button and others in its cast.

"The Magic Nutcracker" will follow on December 23 starring Carol Lawrence, Robert Goulet and Pierre Olaf.

"Winter Carnival at Sun Valley" on February 23 will star Jack Carter, Roberta Peters, Gordon and Sheila MacRae and Dick Button, and will feature several ski champions.

The last two programs of the series will be presented on May 29 and September 9, 1962.

IT TAKES CHRISTINE White just four minutes on a downhill run to get from home to work, since the actress traded her beach house at Malibu for a castle in the Hollywood Hills, close to Revue Studios. That's where she's working this season in the new comedy series, "Ichabod and Me," starring Robert Sterling and George Chandler. The turreted home, a replica of a castle in Denmark, was built some 30 years ago by a homesick Danish carpenter.

ACTOR JAMES Franciscus, who stars as an insurance investigator Russ Andrews in "The Investigators," which will have its premiere showing Thursday, October 5, on the CBS Television Network (9-10 p.m., EDT), and Dick Lewis, executive producer of the series, are both products of the Yale University School of Drama.

"ROUTE 66," beginning its second season on TV, is planning shows set in the following cities during the 1961-1962 season: Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore, Washington, Nashville, Memphis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Dallas, Houston and San Antonio.

Peggie Castle of "Lawman" says the man who is all wrapped up in himself is overdressed.

Barry Sullivan of "Tall Man" says the quickest way for a man to dry a woman's tears is to throw in the sponge.

Alan Reed, the voice of Fred Flintstone, says if you don't budget you're not acting your wage.

Joe Hamilton of Bob Banner Associates says women may lack the power of conversation but never the power of speech.

Henry Morgan of "I've Got A Secret" revises an old proverb to observe that the early husband gets his own breakfast.
